Men are procurable here to fill the appointments offered, but they are not willing to go for Rs 15/=; they ask Rs 20/= per mensem. Probably the best thing would be to advertize in local papers.

Now what action do you wish me to take? I should think it would be almost worthwhile to pay the extra money and get the properly trained men especially in view of the important work there will be in organizing the Transport Train.

The Chief Commandant agrees with you that properly trained men should be got and is willing to meet the extra money from some Regimental Fund. Will you kindly ask Ordnance Officer to send them up.
